Austin, TX – A+ Federal Credit Union donated $14,153.88 to 20 different schools and organizations throughout Central Texas to pay school lunch balances for A+ Gives. Fifteen of the schools’ overdue balances will be paid off completely.

“We’re excited to give back in such an impactful way to the schools and communities we serve,” Kerry A.S. Parker, A+FCU CEO, said. “This was a great way to kick off A+ Gives and the celebration of our 70th anniversary.”

A+FCU employees contributed over $1,800 to the overall donation balance.

The schools and organizations receiving donations are:

- Akins High School, Austin ISD
- Anderson Mill Elementary, Round Rock ISD
- Bagdad Elementary, Leander ISD
- Bastrop Intermediate School, Bastrop ISD
- Buda Elementary, Hays CISD
- Connally High School, Pflugerville ISD
- Gattis Elementary, Round Rock ISD
- Grandview Hills Elementary, Leander ISD
- Highland Park Elementary, Pflugerville ISD
- Howard Norman Elementary, Hutto ISD
- Lake Travis Elementary, Lake Travis ISD
- Mitchell Elementary, Georgetown ISD
- Mountain View Elementary, Killeen ISD
- Murchison Middle School, Austin ISD
- Oak Hill Elementary, Austin ISD
- Reagan Elementary, Leander ISD
- REAL Learning Academy, Wayside Schools
- Round Rock High School, Round Rock ISD
- School Fuel San Marcos

The donations were made as part of A+ Gives, a series of 70 different days throughout 2019 with scheduled acts of kindness. Monthly themes range from volunteering at nonprofit organizations to organizing food donations to providing veterans assistance.
