A+ Federal Credit Union Announces Tricia Lewis Promotion To Senior VP, Human Resources

Austin, TX – A+ Federal Credit Union (A+FCU), $2 billion in assets, is excited to announce the promotion of Tricia Lewis to Senior Vice President of Human Resources.

“Tricia is a fierce champion for each employee and the credit union alike,” Eric R. Kase, A+FCU President/CEO, said. “Among a multitude of responsibilities, she has steered her teams to handle this past year’s COVID crisis with innovation and resolve.”

Lewis has been with A+FCU since 2002, first starting as the Human Resources Assistant and working her way up through management positions. Her role includes overseeing the Human Resources and Training departments at the credit union.

“Tricia helped build our Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Council and related initiatives in 2020, along with so much more,” Kase said. “We’re grateful to have her here at A+ and look forward to her continued success.”

Lewis holds a Bachelor of Business Administration in Accounting from Midwestern State University and a Senior Professional in Human Resources (SPHR®) Certification from the HR Certification Institute.
