Surviving the holidays is simpler when you take time to develop a strategy that aligns with the things you value most.

Identify those priorities now to help ensure your time and money are well spent.

1

What's important to you?

This holiday season, focus on things that bring you joy.

- What part of the holidays is most meaningful to you?

- What are a few things you'd like to spend more time on?

- What traditions or activities are stressful and wouldn't be missed?

2

How much are you able and willing to spend?

Keep your holiday spending in check by creating a spending plan.

- What's your spending limit?

- What expenses, if any, would you like to prioritize this year?

- Next, use the Holiday Budget Worksheet to allocate funds to different spending categories.
- If gift giving is in your plans, use the Holiday Gift List to determine individual gift ideas and limits.

How can you save and stay within budget?

For a merrier season, maximize savings and reimagine holiday traditions.

- What are a few things you can you do to maximize savings?

Here are some easy, low-cost ideas:

- Make it a potluck
- Volunteer your time
- Host a game night
- Bake treats
- Get crafty with D-I-Y gifts
- See the neighborhood lights
- Switch to a "Secret Santa" gift exchange

- How can you help ensure you stay within budget?

Recommendations:

- Track spending
- Look for sales
- Shop with coupons
- Use deal sites and apps
- Know what you want to buy
- Be cautious with credit cards

How can you prepare for the next holiday season?

Setting and tackling goals in advance can bring you added peace.

- Is there anything you'd like to do differently next year?

- How much did holiday spending total this season?

- Divide that by 10 to calculate a monthly savings goal for the next holiday season.

Boost savings with these tips:

- Establish a dedicated savings account
- Set up automatic transfers or deposits
- Track your progress
